AGREEMENT (Non-Financial)

This agreement is entered into on this 08.01.2021 by and between Chrysalis EZ Vidya, a company incorporated under Companies Act having its registered office at No. 61, Kamdar Nager 2nd Street, Kamdar Nager, Nungambakkam, Chennai - 600034 as party on the first part and THEIVANAI AMMAL COLLEGE FOR WOMEN (AUTONOMOUS) as party on the second part. The terms of this agreement shall begin on 08.01.2021 and shall continue through its termination date.

That the party on the first part would like to create awareness and promote IBM Open P-Tech (online learning program) as the platform of choice for students to equip themselves with latest technologies and shape their careers on the early years of their education.

That the party on the first part will promote Open P-Tech in colleges by enrolling students onto the program by conducting online webinars/workshops for students and supporting them in completing the recommended course in Open P-Tech platform (to be duly communicated by the party on the first part within 14 days of signing the agreement).

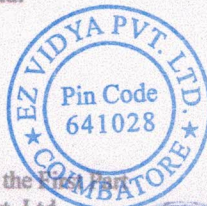

That the party on the first part advocates STEM methodology of teaching to promote love of learning, encouraging students to engage with the design and make process, solving problems and giving voices to both their creativity and critical thinking. That the enrollment to the scheme would be totally free of cost for students and the college. No financial liabilities would be incurred to both the students and colleges. That the project timeline would be ONE YEAR and the party on the first part would strategize and execute online engagement sessions/college visits on a need to basis, evaluated by the party on the first part. The PARTY will enroll students (both individual and institution based), track the progress of students and gather critical analytical insights, send periodical reminders to the students updating their course progress status, communicate to students to gather feedback and insights about Open P-Tech program, to improve the Open P-tech program, and to support students and administrative capacities such as password generation and query resolution.

That the party on the second part will provide student details (names, contact details including phone number and email ids of students and one parent or guardian), an anchoring teacher/coordinator/administrator to coordinate with the party on the first part. That the colleges would provide a No Objection Certificate from the student's parents stating their willingness to enroll their wards into the program where the said wards are legally minors below the age of 18.

That the party on the first will treat all Personal Data provided by the party on the second as confidential by not disclosing it except to IBM and IBM employees and IBM contractors and only to the extent necessary to execute this Agreement. IBM, its affiliates, and contractors of either may access and use the Personal Data solely for the purpose of executing this Agreement.

That the party on the second part will ensure that the recommended courses advised by the party on the first part would be completed within the stipulated time frame.

The undersigned parties agree in regard to the terms outlined above. This agreement shall be governed under the jurisdiction of the Tamil Nadu.
